Certification – Dates of Birth Verification

Acceptable Verification Instruments of Player Birthdate

Original proof of age documents issued by federal, state, provincial registrars or Vital Statistics of the Department of Health, or local offices thereof, are acceptable proof of age. Some forms have the seal of the registration office impressed thereon. Also issued by these agencies are Photostats of the certificate of live birth with the certification also photostated, including the signature, and may the seal impressed thereon. Such documents are acceptable without “live” signatures.

Passports listing name and birthdate are accepted. Alien Registration Cards issued by the US Government are accepted.

NOT ACCEPTABLE- Baptismal Certificates, including Certificates of Blessing, Dedication, etc. and Hospital Certificates.

Situations where players use the name of an adopting family or the name of the family with whom they live, but whose births are recorded under the surname of the natural father or mother will be handled by the Association Registrar on an individual basis.

When and if such acceptable proof of age is not available, the club may delay the player’s registration and the Association Registrar advised of the circumstances involved for possible consideration of Houston Youth Soccer Association Board of Directors.

I (we) hereby certify that I (we) have seen one of the above listed acceptable proofs of birthdate for each player registered whose first playing season with my (our) club will be
